THE PINNACLE

Dorothy McNett's Place Best Cookware Store

OK. Dorothy McNett is now officially a cooking goddess. The mixer maven, queen of the cookie cutters, knave of the knives, emperor of the...ok, you get it, is the winner in the cookware category in both counties (San Benito, Santa Clara). Again.

And the top overall vote-getter in all categories.

Local wines, turkey lifters, Peggy Karr plates, barbeque branding irons, candy molds, Riedel glassware and hundreds of little cooking gadgets we can't identify.

French brie in Hollister? That's what makes it worth the drive.

Fan Mail...

"I have watched your TV programs in rapture. I am delighted in the way you are able to reach the beginner, intermediate, and advanced cooks with recipes, style, content, and method, combined with the latest innovations in equipment and materials, reach their potential as home chefs."

—Henry Eisemann, Author/Publisher/Lecturer

"Dorothy's practical approach to food preparation is refreshing and she's not afraid to make a mistake—she simply views this as an opportunity to demonstrate how the home cook would recover and go on to serve yet another delightful dish." —Merridy Howell

"Dorothy McNett is a born teacher and a true professional. She is fun, entertaining, energetic, and personable. I have enjoyed observing her growth from her tiny shop to the grand store she owns now, and from weekly cooking classes in her store to becoming a local TV personality. Thanks for the wonderful gift of cooking she has given to me and to others." —Billie McKenzie, Teacher
